

Akrotiri School

Friday Feeling

#020

Friday 23 February

Welcome back, after what I hope has been a restful half term break. As ever, we are straight back into the thick of learning and it feels as though we have never been away! The children continue to respond tremendously to their learning and are also looking ahead to some exciting extra-curricular activity too. Across KS2 there is an air of excitement, as the auditions for 'Oliver' are at the selection stage. Congratulations to everyone who put themselves forward and well done to those selected for parts. You are all a credit to the school.

Today, we launch a parent questionnaire inviting you to give feedback on all aspects of school, including questions around the new school hours which began in September. Please take the time to complete the questionnaire – we will feedback the results to you once analysed.

A reminder that you should receive an email on Monday inviting you to sign up to My Child at School (MCAS), Bromcom. Please refer to the letter sent out earlier in the week – and attached for further information.

Finally, over the last two weeks a 'drink drive' video has been shared at the Station Commander's brief. There are three parts, with the final instalment being shown next Tuesday. Below are links to the first two clips which have been used as part of the campaign against drink driving. They give a strong message with clear intent and are shared on this FF#020 in support of the station stance.
